Work Experience

Front End Web Developer
2021 to 2021

As of now I'm just a self-taught front end developer and will be full-stack by mid 2022. I'm looking to gain more experience in the field. I use react as framework but can switch to any that best suit the company. I have some background in C++, C#.net, HTML, CSS, and Javascript.

Front End Developer
Evolutions
2020 to 2021

I used to work for evolution it is a Valet company. we manage about 300-400 a week. My responsibilities were to provide excellent customer service, get the customer information, and assure that their need are met in a timely and professional manner. I had to end my contract with them because I had a family emergency that requires me to be out for 3 months

Driver/Detailer
Sparkling Image Car Wash - Miami, FL
July 2019 to August 2020

My job was to provide excellent customer service. I was so good at the job that I was offered a supervisor position twice but I had to decline because I am currently a full-time college student. finally, I had to leave because my family bought a house in Tampa and had to move with them.

Carpenter Assistant
Rony attelier

My Dad was a carpenter I was his assistant before he retired and as his personal assistant, I use to help him make a lot of handmade things such as cabinets, doors, etc... I am able to mount almost anything, use most electronic equipment without any guidance, take measures, and anything that is related to his Job
